Experience handling money and doing simple record keeping is required. Interns will be required to possess skill and experience operating motor vehicles and hand tools. Competency using computers is also a plus.

WORK CONDITIONS, CLOTHING GEAR

Describe the work conditions (hours, dress code, environment/setting) and appropriate clothing/gear that the prospective intern should be aware of

The intern will be expected to work 40 hours per week. The position requires wearing a uniform and the intern will be expected to keep their uniform in good working condition, maintain a clean personal appearance at all times while on duty and quickly replace uniform components that are damaged in the field.

Field patrols will include tasks that are dirty and must be completed in a variety of weather conditions. The temperature in Alaska from May to August ranges from 35 – 70 degrees (F) and weather can change dramatically within a day. Thus, the ability to add and remove clothes based on weather conditions is important. Safety gear will be provided as necessary, and training will be provided before the intern is assigned to each task.

Information desk staffing will include sitting and/or standing at a counter-height desk and providing Refuge information to visitors for a minimum of 7 hours a day. There will be periods of intense activity when the intern will be asked to support other Refuge staff with answering phones and radio while responding to the needs and questions of visitors.

A uniform allowance will be provided for the intern to purchase the needed components and a variety of uniform pieces are also available in a shared uniform closet.
